

Khun Tyke

Executive Director

Khun Tyke founded MYA and oversees all of the organization's programs and operations. He deeply understands the Burmese community and its challenges, including cultural barriers, language difficulties, health concerns, addiction, and violence. Through his leadership, MYA continues to empower the community and build a brighter, more hopeful future.